As an equal opportunities employer TPAS will not tolerate direct and indirect discrimination and disadvantage. We will also take every possible step to ensure that individuals are treated equally and fairly and that decisions on recruitment, selection, training, promotion, discipline, provision of benefits, redundancy and career development are based solely on the merit and ability of the individual.

All staff in TPAS are expected to take a personal responsibility in the implementation of equal opportunities in their day-to-day dealings with the public, colleagues and advisers.

Our commitment:

- To create an environment in which individual differences and the contributions of all staff are recognised and valued.
- Ensure that appropriate training, development and progression opportunities are available to all staff.
- Ensure equality and diversity form an integral part of all our policies, practices and procedures. These will be regularly reviewed to ensure fairness.
- Train our managers and those who are taking part in the recruitment process so that they are aware of equal opportunities and the law as it applies to recruitment.
- Entitle every employee to work in an environment that promotes dignity and respect to all. No form of bullying or harassment will be tolerated.

Breaches of our equality and diversity policy will be regarded as misconduct and could lead to disciplinary proceedings.

- This policy is fully supported by senior management and the chief executive is responsible for ensuring it is carried out.
- The policy will be monitored and reviewed annually.
- We will monitor the recruitment and selection, training and other personnel procedures and log the results annually.
